Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1927 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 33, Chapter 2, Part 4, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Maintenance of certification" means any process requiring periodic recertification examinations or other activities to maintain specialty medical board certification; and

(2) "Organized medical staff" means an organized body composed of individuals appointed by a facility's governing board that operates under bylaws approved by the governing body and is responsible for the quality of medical care provided to patients by the facility.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by this section, facilities licensed under this title may only differentiate between licensed physicians based on a physician's maintenance of certification in medical staff privileging and credentialing when authorized through the following process:

(1) The voting members of the facility's organized medical staff vote to adopt the differentiation; and

(2) The facility's governing body reviews and approves the action of the medical staff.

(c) An authorization described by subsection (b) may:

(1) Establish terms applicable to the facility's differentiation, including:

(A) Appropriate grandfathering provisions; and

(B) Limiting the differentiation to certain medical specialties; and

(2) Be rescinded at any time when:

(A) The voting members of the facility's organized medical staff vote to rescind the differentiating action; and

(B) The facility's governing body reviews and approves the rescinding action of the organized medical staff.

(d) Nothing in this section restricts a facility's ability to differentiate between physicians in medical staff privileging and credentialing based on a physician's maintenance of certification when:

(1) The facility's designation under law or certification or accreditation by a national certifying or accrediting organization is contingent on the facility requiring a specific maintenance of certification by physicians seeking staff privileges or credentialing at the facility; and

(2) The differentiation is limited to those physicians whose maintenance of certification is required for the facility's designation, certification, or accreditation as described by subdivision (d)(1).

(e) Nothing in this section requires a facility's organized medical staff or governing body to reconsider or vote to reconsider maintenance of certification differentiation or requirements made prior to July 1, 2018.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 56, Chapter 7, Part 10, is amended by adding the following as a new section to be appropriately designated:

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Continuing medical education" means board of medical examiners or board of osteopathic examination required continued postgraduate medical education intended to provide medical professionals with knowledge of new developments in the professional's field;

(2) "Maintenance of certification" means any process requiring periodic recertification examinations or other activities to maintain specialty medical board certification;

(3) "Maintenance of licensure" means the proprietary framework for physician license renewal established through the Federation of State Medical Boards or its successor organization, which includes additional periodic testing or requirements other than continuing medical education; and

(4) "Specialty medical board certification" means certification by a board that specializes in one (1) particular area of medicine and typically requires additional examinations other than the requirements of the board of medical examiners or board of osteopathic examination to practice medicine.

(b) A health insurance entity, as defined in § 56-7-109, shall not deny reimbursement to or prevent a physician licensed pursuant to title 63, chapter 6 or 9 from participating in any of the insurance entity's provider networks based solely on a physician's decision not to participate in any form of maintenance of licensure or maintenance of certification, including basing a physician's network participation on any form of maintenance of licensure tied to maintenance of certification.

(c) A health insurance entity, as defined in § 56-7-109, shall not discriminate with respect to reimbursement levels based solely on a physician's decision not to participate in any form of maintenance of licensure or maintenance of certification, including basing a physician's reimbursement level on any form of maintenance of licensure tied to maintenance of certification.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 68, Chapter 11, Part 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Maintenance of certification" means any process requiring periodic recertification examinations or other activities to maintain specialty medical board certification; and

(2) "Organized medical staff" means an organized body composed of individuals appointed by a facility's governing board that operates under bylaws approved by the governing body and is responsible for the quality of medical care provided to patients by the facility.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by this section, facilities licensed under this title may only differentiate between licensed physicians based on a physician's maintenance of certification in medical staff privileging and credentialing when authorized through the following process:

(1) The voting members of the facility's organized medical staff vote to adopt the differentiation; and

(2) The facility's governing body reviews and approves the action of the medical staff.

(c) An authorization described by subsection (b) may:

(1) Establish terms applicable to the facility's differentiation, including:

(A) Appropriate grandfathering provisions; and

(B) Limiting the differentiation to certain medical specialties; and

(2) Be rescinded at any time when:

(A) The voting members of the facility's organized medical staff vote to rescind the differentiating action; and

(B) The facility's governing body reviews and approves the rescinding action of the organized medical staff.

(d) Nothing in this section restricts a facility's ability to differentiate between physicians in medical staff privileging and credentialing based on a physician's maintenance of certification when:

(1) The facility's designation under law or certification or accreditation by a national certifying or accrediting organization is contingent on the facility requiring a specific maintenance of certification by physicians seeking staff privileges or credentialing at the facility; and

(2) The differentiation is limited to those physicians whose maintenance of certification is required for the facility's designation, certification, or accreditation as described by subdivision (d)(1).

(e) Nothing in this section requires a facility's organized medical staff or governing body to reconsider or vote to reconsider maintenance of certification differentiation or requirements made prior to July 1, 2018.

AMEND House Bill No. 1765 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 6, is amended by adding the following language as a new part:

(a) Fire drills, fire safety educational announcements, and safety drills in educational occupancies shall be conducted in accordance with § 68-102-137.

(b) Each public school shall conduct at least one (1) earthquake preparedness drill annually. A record of all earthquake preparedness drills, including the time and date, shall be kept in the respective school offices and shall be made available to the state board of education upon request.

(1) Each public school shall annually conduct at least four (4) lockdown drills. All lockdown drills shall be conducted in coordination with the appropriate local law enforcement agency.

(2) At least one (1) lockdown drill shall be an armed intruder drill which must be conducted within the first thirty (30) days of the school year.

(3) The results of each lockdown drill shall be maintained by each school for a minimum of five (5) years and shall be made available to the department of education and the state fire marshal upon request.

(d) The earthquake preparedness drill and armed intruder drill required by this section shall satisfy two (2) of the three (3) annual safety drills required by § 68-102-137(f).

(e) Any drills required as part of the comprehensive statewide program of emergency management maintained by the Tennessee emergency management agency, including, but not limited to, any drills required as part of a radiological emergency response plan or any preparedness requirements imposed by the United States nuclear regulatory commission or the federal emergency management agency, shall be conducted in accordance with title 58, chapter 2.

(f) The state board of education shall develop guidance on all required emergency preparedness and school safety drills. In developing the guidance, the board shall consult and collaborate with the Tennessee school safety center, the Tennessee emergency management agency, and the state fire marshal.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-5-201(b), is amended by deleting the subsection.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-1-302(a)(16), is amended by deleting the subdivision.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-6-807, is amended by deleting the section.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 68-102-137(e), is amended by deleting the subsection.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect July 1, 2018, the public welfare requiring it.

Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 2116 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 7, is amended by adding the following new chapter:

7-91-101.

An area of property meeting the following description may be deemed, in accordance with this chapter, the JustBeGreen development area, and the future site of an agricultural and educational based smart city to be known as the City of JustBeGreen, for purposes of sustainable living and sustainable economic development, including, but not limited to, the development of sustainable technologies, products, and agriculture:

(1) The property is located in a county with a population of not less than twenty-one thousand nine hundred (21,900) and not more than twenty-two thousand (22,000), according to the 2010 or any subsequent federal census; and

(2) The property consists of not less than two thousand (2,000) contiguous acres.

7-91-102.

(a) One or more property owners of property within an area described under § 7-91-101 may petition the county commission to be deemed the JustBeGreen development area.

(b) For purposes of filing a petition under subsection (a), property owners shall provide to the county commission:

(1) A description of all property to be included in the proposed development area;

(2) The identity of each property owner filing the petition; and

(3) A description of the proposed development and its purpose and land uses within the development area.

(c) Upon receipt of a petition, the county commission may adopt a resolution:

(1) Designating the area described in the petition as the JustBeGreen development area; and

(2) Authorizing the area to be referred to as the City of JustBeGreen.

7-91-103.

(a) Upon adoption of a resolution under § 7-91-102, a board of commissioners for the City of JustBeGreen, consisting of five (5) members, must be appointed as follows:

(1) Three (3) members to be appointed by a majority of the property owners named on the petition filed under § 7-91-102;

(2) One (1) member to be appointed by the county mayor; and

(3) One (1) member to be appointed by the county commission.

(b) The appointing authorities shall strive to ensure commissioners are of excellent character and reputation.

(c) Upon appointment, commissioners serve a term of eight (8) years and are not entitled to receive any salary or expenses for service on the board.

(d) Vacancies on the board must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

(e) The board shall elect from among its members a chair, vice chair, and secretary, each of whom retain the right to vote, and shall adopt its own bylaws and rules of procedure.

(f) A majority of the commissioners constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(g) After the appointment of the board, a certified copy of the resolution adopted under § 7-91-102 must be filed with the secretary of state together with the names of the commissioners on the board.

7-91-104.

(a) Except as otherwise limited by this section or by resolution of the county commission, the board of commissioners of the City of JustBeGreen, for the purposes set forth in the petition to designate the JustBeGreen development area under § 7-91-102, may:

(1) Have perpetual succession;

(2) Compile information and hold hearings relative to development projects in the City of JustBeGreen;

(3) Acquire real or personal property or any interest in real or personal property by gift, lease, or purchase;

(4) Sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of real or personal property;

(5) Enter into agreements with the county; and

(6) Apply for and receive from any source, public or private, grants, gifts, property, guarantees, or other financial assistance.

(b) The board does not have the power to levy or collect taxes or assessments, issue debt, or obtain financing.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, Local Government Committee Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Rep. Powell moved the previous question, which motion prevailed.

Rep. Windle moved that House Bill No. 2116, as amended, be passed on third and final consideration, which motion prevailed by the following vote:
